

Invest in Your People and Reward them at the Same Time

Executive Communication provides highly interactive and intensive Business English Seminars designed to speed up the learning process and expose participants to the English Language in 2 to 7 days working closely with English Native Speaking Trainers, especially trained for high impact delivery and communication.

The Syllabus and Business Functions can be custom tailored in conjunction with your company to focus on what it has assessed to be of most importance. For instance, there can be one to one sessions, which focus mainly on the individual's weaknesses, and shared Business workshops, which focus more on Language interaction, vocabulary building and group work development.
